Borba, No 272, 1949.

The Bor coal mine was provided with winter food and fuel by the end of October. Seventy-eight carloads of potatoes were received from the "Povrtar" Enterprise in Novi Sad and 20 carloads from Zagubica. In addition 4 carloads of tomatoss, 2 carloads of beets, 3 carloads of fresh peppers, 5 carloads of preserve peppers, 12 carloads of peas, and 172 carloads of cabbage were also received. In all, 50 carloads of cabbage were planned for. They are coming in Banjaluka has received 50 percent of its potatoes and 21 percent of its peas, and is adequately supplied with cabbage. At present consumers are getting to kilograms of potatoes per capita for 42 dinars a kilogram. Hereafter, consumers with R ration cards will receive 50 kilograms per capita, while other consumers will receive 30 kilograms per capita.

To date 15,000 cubic meters of wood have been cut, 11,000 cubic meters brought into Banjaluka, and 6,000 cubic meters distributed to the population. The rest has been distributed to hospitals and other institutions.

The Rijeka authorities have planned for 78,730 cubic meters of wood. By the beginning of December, 41.6 percent of the wood planned will have been received.
